Owner, Oakmont Executive Transportation

Do you have a parent or relative that dreads the thought of driving on our region's busy roads? Maybe night vision concerns or walking for long distances after searching for scarce parking spaces has limited and affected their confidence. It's a subject that many realize is a problem, but we ignore it – not wanting to face the truth. Maybe you would actually love the service yourself!

Oakmont Executive Transportation Services is your answer. For 17 years Pasadena Foothills seniors have looked to Oakmont Executive Transportation for transportation services of all kinds. Doctor appointments, luncheons, hair appointments, shopping excursions, there's an endless list of destinations that you or an elderly loved one might benefit from Oakmont's transportation services.

Owner Sue Lynch prides herself on impeccable customer service, an unbeatable selection of ultimate luxury vehicles, and knowledgeable, well-groomed, professional, and courteous chauffeurs.

Caring professional chauffeurs will transport you safely to the grocery store, doctor appointment, hair appointments and lunch or dinner out with friends. Just imagine the convenience of being dropped off at the front door of the mall and your very own driver waiting in a climate controlled sedan. Chauffeurs will also lend a hand assisting with packages, making sure each passenger gets in and out of their residence safely. They are also great listeners, and are happy to assist with any special requests.
